Shingeki no Kyojin / Attack on Titan was retconned for being too Ethnonationalist

The Eldians in AoT are an exact representation of whites in the modern world.(as well as northeast asians, because the same woke agendas that are pushed in the west are also pushed in Japan and South Korea). And Grisha and the Restorationists and later their successors Eren and the Yeagerists, are a perfect representation of National Socialist Germans and Imperial Japanese. They are literally ethnonationalists in every sense of the word. I do not claim that Isayama consciously and purposely wrote it in this way, but that's how it turned out, either by accident or design. Take a good look at the two images below and read the parallels with reality. Then scroll further down for an analysis of how AoT was retconned.

>Eldians
Inherent racial privilege (titanization)
At advantage to all other races
Once ruled the world
Historically were conquerors
Spread language/culture across world
Incredible feats of engineering that arguably benefited all of humanity (worldwide roads)
Other races were second class
Eldian blood sought after, mixed race offspring elevated to higher class

>Eldians - centuries later
Self hating leaders cuck their own race
Eldian empire collapses
"MUH IMPERIALISM!"
"MUH COLONIALISM!"
Entire world hates Eldians b/c history
Eldians taught in schools about the evils committed by their ancestors and country in history
Eldians shackled with racial guilt - "Original Sin"
Eldians try to prove themselves as allies - "one of the good ones" - to non-Eldians by:
Betraying family and friends
Preaching anti-Eldian beliefs
Advocating against other Eldians (Paradis)

>Whites
Inherent racial privilege
Ostensibly at advantage to all other races
Once ruled the world (Rome, Great Britain, Pax Americana)
Historically were conquerors
Spread language/Western culture across world
Incredible feats of engineering that arguably benefited all of humanity (Roads, nearly every invention, modern medicine, science, space)
Other races were second class
White blood sought after, mixed race offspring elevated to higher class
(mestizos, castizos, light skinned blacks, "colorism")

>Whites - centuries later
Self hating leaders cuck their own race
White empire collapses (anti-colonialism, decline of Western civilization, decline of Pax Americana)
"MUH IMPERIALISM!"
"MUH COLONIALISM!"
Entire world hates Whites b/c history
Whites taught in schools about the evils committed by their ancestors and country in history [1][2][3][4][5][6]
Whites shackled with racial guilt - "Original Sin"
Whites try to prove themselves as allies to People of Color by:
Betraying family and friends (outing family and friends as racists to employers, social media mob, cutting off others based on racism and politics)
Preaching anti White beliefs [1][2][3][4]
Advocating against other Whites[1][2]

Do you see? There is no way the woke powers that be would allow such a story to have an ending where ethnonationalists like the Yeagerists win and are victorious. Because them being victorious and achieving peace and freedom with their victory, would depict ethnonationalism as a good or at least acceptable ideology. And there is no way in hell they could allow a piece of mainstream media such as AoT to have an ending like that. It goes against the modern woke narrative of equality and diversity and all that crap.

This is why they introduced time travel to AoT. The sole purpose of time travel in this show, was to retcon Grisha Yeager, a full blown ethnonationalist who gave his entire life for Eldia, and have him cry like a bitch to Zeke's ear that he wants him to stop Eren. LOL What the FUCK was that?? Grisha whose 8 year old sister was fed alive to dogs, whose wife was murdered and turned into a titan along with all his comrades, who had dedicated his entire life to the Restoration, suddenly regretted it all for no reason, did a 180 degree spin of character, and wanted Zeke to stop “evil nationalist Eren” and “evil nationalist Eren” used time travel to force “his poor innocent leftist father” into helping with the evil rumbling. What kind of retconned shit is that?? Grisha fucking Yeager did not need any motivation to slaughter the Reiss family, other than that his sister was fed alive to fucking dogs and his entire race was condemned by the king of the walls to genocide. Time travel was so very obviously added to AoT to retconn Grisha Yeager, a man who like Eren Kruger, gave his life for the Restoration of Eldia. And to prove this, if Grisha had “regretted his evil nationalist ways” by the time he gave kid Eren the titan by feeding himself to him, then that scene in season 1 where Grisha is crying before injecting Eren with the serum and telling him “YOU MUST FIND A WAY TO USE THIS POWER” makes no sense. The raw emotion of Grisha in that scene and the words “If you want to save Mikasa, Armin and everyone else, YOU MUST FIND A WAY TO USE THIS POWER” make no sense if prior to that he had cried to Zeke's ear that he wants him to stop Eren. So there's your proof. Grisha was RETCONNED!!!!

The exact same goes for Levi and the dead survey corps members who are depicted as wanting the rumbling to stop from the afterlife. These people sacrificed their families, their lives, saw countless comrades being eaten alive by titans and eventually were eaten themselves, all for the sake of freeing the people from the prison of the walls and exploring the world outside. The Survey Corps is a perfect representation of the Faustian Spirit that yearns to be free and explore unknown lands to the ends of the earth and beyond. They are the bravest of the brave and purest of the pure. They, stand for all that is good and true in humanity. There is no way these people would abandon the people they gave their lives to free for the sake of some leftist notion of equality and condemn their race to genocide. If they allow Paradis to be destroyed then what did they die for? What did they see all their comrades get eaten for?? What did they sacrifice everything for?? The members of the Survey Corps would most definitely be PRO-Rumbling. The Yeagerists are their successors and they all rightfully carry the wings of freedom sigil.

And Erwin Smith above all would be pro-rumbling. This man, who saw all his comrades die at the hands of the titans for years and years all for the sake of learning the truth of this world, and was all about giving meaning to his dead comrades' deaths, as he said in his last speech, would never be anything other than pro-rumbling. In his last speech Erwin Smith made it clear that the surviving members of the Survey Corps have the DUTY of giving meaning to the deaths of their fallen comrades, and must entrust their living comrades with giving meaning to their deaths. That was his ideology. If Erwin fought against the Rumbling like retarded ending defenders believe he would, then that would mean that all his comrades died for NOTHING. What did all the members of the Survey Corps die for?? equality and diversity??? They died for freeing their people from the fucking walls, not for allowing them to be genocided at the hands of Marley. They died for ELDIA. That is why it makes no sense even for Hanje to be a left-wing traitor. Hanje, Erwin, Levi and all members of the Survey Corps were retconned. Can't have a popular show depicting brave fighters as nationalists.

And now Levi. Levi fighting against the Rumbling, is a 180 degree spin of his character. Because aside from being a Survey Corps member and a loyal friend of Erwin Smith, his best friends as well as the love of his life, Petra, were all brutally murdered by the fucking whore Annie. He's been wanting to murder her since season 1 and rightfully so because she is a sadistic, murderous fucking whore that was clearly shown taking pleasure in the killings she did in season 1 and had zero remorse.(remember when she spun that guy around and was smiling) And all of a sudden Levi forgot it all and teamed up with her and her Marleyan comrades because “nationalism is evil”. Retconned bullishit to the maximum.

After chapter 123 they retconned every character and turned them into a fucking leftist who fights for fucking equality, and as if that wasn't enough, in chapter 139 they did the same to Eren. You must understand that this was done because the people who control the publishing companies did not want to have a popular show promoting nationalist ideals. They wanted to push their woke agenda instead. This is the reason for the retcons.

This is also why they retconned Historia's child being Eren's, and introduced this cuck bullshit about some random farmer, because they couldn't show an ethnonationalist banging the Queen because that would subcosciously promote ethnonationalism as a “hot” ideology that even Queens get wet for and have no problem with. This is the reason for the farmer-kun degenerate cuckoldry shit. And to prove this is true, take a good look at the image below. It is the original final panel of AoT, confessed to be so by Isayama himself. It is Eren, holding his and Historia's daughter, after a full rumbling, and telling her “now you are free”.

お前は自由だ

Alas, we were robbed of such an ending, because a nationalist victory is not permitted in any popular show. You see, Isayama didn't write the chapters after 123. The people who own the publishing companies and his work, did. They commanded him to retcon it and so he did. He had no choice. I hope that is clear.

Final Note: There is nothing more retarded in this world than that port battle where the cringelliance effortlessly destroys all the Yeagerists without losing a single person. All those thunder spears and they couldn't kill even the cart titan for fuck's sake. The plot armor of the cringelliance made them unkillable. And on top of that, not a single one of the Yeagerists thought about shooting the fucking ship. One shot by one Yeagerist and it would have been game over for the cringe traitors. But the plot armor was so thick the Yeagerists were all made completely retarded for that one battle. LOOOL What an absolute fucking joke. Shittiest and most unrealistic battle scene in all of fucking history.

DO YOU ACTUALLY REALIZE THAT YOU LITERALLY HAVE NATIONALIST IDEALS? YOU'RE A LITERAL F*CKING RACIST.
YEAH. AND?
